PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

THE PUBLISHER is requested to call attention to the advantages to be derived from the PERMANENT insertion of Professional Cards in the MUSICAL TIMES.

Correspondents are constantly writing to the Office, requesting to have Teachers, Vocalists, and others, recommended to them; which information it would be very essential to furnish in the advertising columns, although to give it editorially would be invidious.

The price for Hire of Concert Rooms, the numbers the rooms will accommodate, &c., &c., is information which it would be both profitable to the Proprietors and convenient to Professors using them, if constantly advertised in a few lines.

SCALE OF CHARGES:—

A Card can be inserted in 12 Numbers of the
MUSICAL TIMES	if two lines, 16 6
Or in 18 Numbers, One Year	ditto 25 6
In 12 Numbers	if three lines, 21 0
Or in 18 Numbers, One Year	ditto 31 6
Every additional line, for 12 Numbers	5 6
Every additional line, for 18 Numbers, One Year	7 6
Single insertions, Sixpence per line.

By this means 144,000 copies of a professional card would be printed and circulated every year, at a considerably less charge than they would otherwise cost for printing only, without distribution.

Advertisements must be prepaid, and should reach Dean-street by the 8th or 22nd of each month, to insure insertion.

NOVELLO'S LIBRARY

FOR THE DIFFUSION OF

MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE.

Under this title it is proposed to reprint a variety of standard Treatises on the Art of Music, written by the most esteemed English and Foreign Masters, at prices which will place them within the means of every student. The lucid and elaborate “TREATISE ON COUNTERPOINT AND FUGUE, BY CHERUBINI,” is now ready (copies can be had July 15th), and is offered as a fair specimen of the future works proposed to be included. There has been made a translation by Mrs. Cowden Clarke especially for the present edition, from Cherubini's original, published in French; the proofs have been carefully revised and compared with both French and German editions, and the Musical portion has been supervised by Mr. Josiah Pittman, organist of Lincoln's Inn. This comprehensive work has never been published for less than 30 francs, and has been sold in England for 31s. 6d.—Novello's edition will be sold complete and bound for 6s. 6d., or about a fifth of former prices. The convenient form adopted for “Hawkins's History of Music” has been found particularly well adapted for Novello's LIBRARY for the diffusion of MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE, because the page presents so much at one view as especially to aid comparative study.

Several equally important works are in a forward state of preparation, and which will be published in rapid succession, at similarly popular prices; they will be more particularly announced when quite ready for sale.

Luther says—“Music is a half discipline and schoolmistress, that maketh people more gentle and meek-minded, more modest and understanding. * * * * The youth ought to be brought up and accustomed to this Art, for it maketh fine and expert people.” The realization of Luther's proposition would be greatly forwarded by a general use of the present publication.

The success of the undertaking, and its continuation, however, must depend on the sale of a large number of copies, and every buyer of even a single copy will be lending a helping hand to the good work. Let every one, then, who desires the diffusion of musical knowledge, order of their nearest Music-seller or Bookseller,

Cherubini's Treatise on Counterpoint and Fugue,

(Novello's Edition) price 6s. 6d. bound, [now ready]

and the following Parts of Novello's LIBRARY for the diffusion of MUSICAL KNOWLEDGE as they are published.

63, Dean Street, Soho, July 1, 1854.
